Transformation

Rev. Don Garrett

We'll wrap up our month of transformation by turning into something else altogether.

Don Sense – by Rev. Don Garrett

Our Theme for April:

What Does It Mean to be a Community of Transformation?

This month's theme is perfectly suited to our current ongoing Transformational Planning efforts to help our Beloved Community become all that it can be.

True transformation always entails an element of mystery because we can't necessarily be sure of where we're going and what we're going to become. Think about the conversation you might have with a kernel of corn about the green growing plant that is its destiny. It might tell you that it doesn't make sense, that it knows what it is, and cracking open to become a plant isn't on the agenda.

The truth is, we can't fully know what it's going to be like until we get there. But we can begin to imagine what transformation might mean, and that imagination might fuel our commitment to the process. Sometimes we need faith to have hope, but doesn't that sound like what a church should be doing? You know: faith, hope, and charity and all?

After all, being a church means engaging the holy conversation about how love shapes the world, and calling its members to do the most important work there is: transforming the world, being a place where people are committed to loving one another in thought, word, and deed; a community committed to completing the evolutionary journey from fear to love, and shining its light so that our society and the world will be called to do the same.

This is a vision that gives me hope for a congregation transformed into its highest potential. How about you?

Meeting With Me

I've heard that there is some confusion about how to meet with me. Some have even suggested that my lack of posted office hours makes me hard to find – but nothing could be further from the truth!

My experience, and that of many of my colleagues, has shown that the practice of regular office hours is not a very useful way for a minister to spend time. Open office hours are an outdated artefact of the neighborhood church, where everyone lives within easy access of the church and people just “drop by.” But since most of our congregations are quite spread out geographically – as ours most certainly is – people don't just walk in.

We've found that it works much better to make ourselves more accessible through appointments. It's easy to do. Just send me an email or call and leave a message. My goal is to be completely accessible to everyone in our community for questions, conversation, and support.

See you in church.

– Don

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Is Your Glass Half Empty or Half Full?

By now, most of you know about the Transformational Planning effort we are undertaking. The planning is still in the early stages. We have a focused Transformational Planning Team (TPT) that is providing early guidance and leadership. We are using the work of a national leadership consultant as a guide. We have discussed the process with the Board of Trustees over many months. The Board is preparing to take on a leadership role when we enter future stages of planning. We have mentioned the work in Sunday announcements. I have discussed the process in my Link column. We explained the idea more fully at a recent Breakfast Forum.

To be honest, the more work we do to introduce and discuss the concept, the more work I (and, I suspect, others) find needs to be done in the early stages...even before we move on to "Phase 2". In fact, we're considering taking more time than originally envisioned for Phase 1, to provide a more solid foundation upon which to build the plan.

I'm a city planning consultant by profession, which I only mention because, no matter where we consulted, we had to work with the circumstances and assets already in place. I could view each situation as a glass half full (great people and things to work with) or half empty (so little to work with, so much to do).

So it is with our Transformational Planning work. We, the UUCLV congregation, are who we are. We have evolved into today's congregation. We start from here. True, we have problems. Doesn't every church? We also have wonderful resources, including people with many talents as well as the collective heart of our congregation, and we will put our resources to use solving our problems as we move forward.

Our Transformational Plan will serve as our guide, just as similar planning has worked for other thriving congregations, such as the University Unitarian Church in Seattle, WA. Your leadership team will guide the UUCLV plan with the help of a knowledgeable and experienced consultant.

So, the choice is yours. As your leadership moves to strengthen and grow the spirit of the UUCLV and plan for our future, how do you feel about the church? Is the glass half empty or half full?

I choose to see the glass as half full. If you feel the glass is half empty, I encourage you to seek out one (or more) members of the TPT to discuss your feelings.

The TPT members are:

Cease Blocker	Bob Kriebel
Cecelia Eberhard	Janice Lovegrove

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR JOHN BRENNAN

We'll remember our beloved member John Brennan in a celebration of life in the Community Room, at 2 pm, on Saturday, April 15.

APRIL MEN'S GROUP

The April meeting of the UUCLV Men's Group will be at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 12 in the FM kitchen. Our topic will be the possible repeal of the Johnson amendment, which limits a church's political activity. What would be the implications for this church? What would be the implications nationally?

The UUCLV Men's Group is open to all men affiliated with the UUCLV and their male friends. For more information, contact men@uuclvpa.org or Frank Claps at 610-346-7629.

UUCLV SAYS GOODBYE TO A SUCCESSFUL SHELTER SEASON

As of March 31, 2017, another season successfully came to a close for the UUCLV emergency shelter for homeless men. With winter weather battering the Lehigh Valley with snow and cold temperatures late into March, the shelter was busy serving its guests to the very end of the season.

From December 1, 2016 – March 31, 2017, the emergency shelter was honored to provide its guests with a warm, safe place to sleep, hot meals (dinner and breakfast), showers and clothes every Wednesday night/Thursday morning. Over the course of the season, a total of 107 men found shelter in our church, and were able to enjoy entertainment like bingo, movies and music (and there even may have been some dancing!), as well as the camaraderie of our volunteers. With the help of Bob Rapp from Bethlehem Emergency Sheltering, several guests were also able to find permanent, affordable housing.

This year, the hard work and dedication of 67 volunteers, spearheaded by Ann Gastinger, made the UUCLV emergency shelter possible. The Shelter Committee would like to thank all of the volunteers who joined together to serve our local homeless community: Ellen Bell, Don Bortz, Linda Brown, Lorraine Bujnowski, Michael Burd, Eleni Burd, Jeannine Burd, Tom Church, Dora Davenport, Cecilia Eberhard, Sheila Gallagher, Don Garrett, Ann Gastinger, Anthony Gazzillo, Chris Guro, Toufy Haddad, Linda Hanna, Nathan Harris, Crawford Harris, Joyce Jackson, Kerry Jones, Dave Kiefer, Lib Kiefer, Madeline Maloney, Zoe Maloney, Sally Marr, Jerry McQueen, Josie Miserendino, Russ Miserendino, Gary Musler, Michael Mueller, Karen Newman, Dona Novak, Bill Nyberg, Nils Nyberg, Renae Orban, Jan Phillips, Tara Quinlivan, Jim Ranieri, Kate Ranieri, Phil Reiss, Ginny Schimmel, Eliana Sekkidou, Nafsikaa Sekkidou-Mueller, Ann Sheridan, Dave Shields, Jackie Simone, Dan Sobrinski, Mary Sobrinski, Patrick Sobrinski, Jordan Sonnenblick, Russ Sonnenblick, Kathy Stagl, Tara Stephenson, Dave Style, Matt Sweitzer, Tony Taglioli, Beth Taylor, Rich Taylor, Molly Trimble, Jack Trimble, Marie Tweed, Win Tweed, Sue Weber, Salli Wood, Judy Wright, Tom Zimmerman, and Allen Zinnes.

And thank you to those who made donations and otherwise supported the shelter's work!

APRIL BREAKFAST FORUM

April 2

Monthly Worship Theme: Transformation

Rev. Don Garrett, Facilitator

There will be a brief presentation, followed by a small-group discussion format and a reuniting to share what we've learned on the theme, "Transformation." Join in this adventure in speaking, listening, thinking, reflecting and sharing together in a new way; another way to live our values of compassion, nurture, and justice in our beloved community.

April 9

The Cherokees: Jefferson to Jackson and the Trail of Tears

Jan Phillips, Presenter

Most people have an idea that [in the late 1830s] the majority of Cherokees were forced from their ancestral territory in the Southeast U.S. and that several thousand perished en route to what is now Oklahoma. We will explore the background of this tragedy, largely blamed on Andrew Jackson, but which might reasonably be considered to have begun with Thomas Jefferson.

April 16

Healthy Eating in 2017

Anne Walker, Presenter

Part 2 of "What in the World Should We Be Eating?" (June 2016) Anne explores: Why is food advice always changing? How do I know which advice to take? How can I make healthy eating simpler and more appealing? Recipes, ideas, and tips will be shared. Anne Walker is a certified Health Coach and a retired public health administrator.

April 23

The History of the Development of UUism - Part II

Cease Blocker, Facilitator

"The Birth of Unitarianism" chronicles how the Unitarian message was carried forward to religious liberals in Poland and Transylvania. and led to the formation of the first coherent Unitarian theology. It documents the influence of Polish Unitarians in the formation of an organized English Unitarianism and concludes with the emigration of Joseph Priestley from England to America in 1794.– DVD

April 30

Ban The Box

Tara Stephenson, Lead Presenter

The Greater Lehigh Valley chapter of the ACLU will present a video on the "Ban the Box" movement, which seeks to stop penalizing those with minor arrest records from being excluded from employment and other benefits of our society. The short video features Duquesne Law professor and ACLU-PA Board President Tracey McCants Lewis, and will be followed by a group discussion.

FROM THE LIFESPAN EDUCATION COORDINATOR

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (RE) FOR CHILDREN & YOUTH

The RE Committee is seeking religious education volunteers for the 2017-18 RE year. Thanks to all of you who volunteered during Religious Education Sunday to assist or teach in our classrooms at least twice in next year's. If you missed RE Sunday or forgot to fill out the yellow RE volunteer card, the cards are still distributed among the back of the pews, or you can simply e-mail your interest to Jansen at lec@uucvpa.org. It is encouraging that we have a group of volunteers ready to go this early in the recruitment process. Our team of religious education volunteers are dedicated and committed to the next generation of Unitarian Universalists. If you were at RE Sunday and/or the Youth Service, you know how much of a difference we make in the lives of our young ones.

If you are curious about teaching or assisting but might be a little shy about committing, I suggest you visit a class on a Sunday to check it out. There are a few more sessions left in April and May. It is a great way to "dip your toes in the water". Let Jansen know if you would like to try it. We would love to welcome you.

In faith, Jansen Wendell,
Director of Lifespan Religious Education
(lec@uucvpa.org)

ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION:

SUNDAY MORNING FAITH EXPLORATION CLASS: What We Choose: Ethics for Unitarian Universalists

(Sundays at 9:00 in the RE library)

Robin Capoor and I are excited to provide opportunities for anyone interested in exploring or growing their faith. Send an e-mail to Jansen at uucvpa.org to be added to the distribution list for notifications and updates.

Our current offering is What We Choose: Ethics for Unitarian Universalists.

We believe the measure of our religion is the way we live our faith in our day-to-day lives. But how do we decide what course of action to follow when a situation is complex and the moral course is unclear? Where do we turn for guidance that will help us fulfill our own wish to live a moral life? This program invites participants to focus attention on the moral and ethical questions that arise or have arisen in their lives.

MINDFULNESS PRACTICE GROUP

(Tuesday evenings, 7:00 – 8:30pm, the Community Room)

With the help of conscious breathing, we are able to touch and be nourished by the peace and joy that are available within and around us, in the here and now. With continued practice, we shall touch and understand the roots of the pain that lie deep within us, such as fear, anger, despair, thus making transformation and healing possible. Contact Rev. Don Garrett at minister@uucvpa.org, or Janice Lovegrove, co-leader 610-882-1136, for more information.

LONG STRANGE TRIP:

2000 YEARS OF UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST HISTORY

This 6 DVD set traces the history and evolution of Unitarianism, Universalism, and the merger of the two into today's Unitarian Universalism. If you want to find out how our "Uncommon Denomination" came to be what it is today, from roots in the Reformation, to the American Revolution to the Civil War to the Transcendentalist Movement to the present, these movies are entertaining and captivating. Contact Jansen Wendell to arrange to borrow DVD's.

CREATING A SAFE HAVEN: UUCLV'S HAVEN

Picture, if you will, the classic Milton Bradley game of Perfection: that recessed yellow plastic square studded with strangely shaped holes into which you need to place small oddly shaped pieces before the clock runs out or, BAM! all the pieces fly up into the air. Each piece has it's own niche and sooner or later, you'll find it.

Let's imagine a piece that doesn't fit, unlike the ones provided by the game's designers, a piece that's waiting to be placed but becomes a frustration as the timer ticks off the seconds. This, according to one of the members of HAVEN, a youth group at the Unitarian Universalist Church of the Lehigh Valley in Bethlehem, is what it feels like to be a young LGBTQIA (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning, intersex, allies) person looking for acceptance.

Youths who identify as LGBTQIA need, like everybody else, to develop an understanding of who they are and a sense of their gender identity. If you're that young person and you feel like you don't fit, you might wonder how and where to go about it and how to find trustworthy help and support.

Conceived in 2000 and opened in 2001, HAVEN was founded by Ilse Stoll, George Van Doren and Pete Pellegrino. Bethlehem area youth from 14 to 20 can attend meetings and expect a safe supportive environment with positive role models and peer support. Group members, facilitators and allies sponsor social and recreational activities as well as the weekly discussions. There's even an annual HAVEN Prom!

HAVEN stands for the basics, what every young person needs: Hope, Acceptance, Validation, Equality and Nurturing. Since 2001, about 1500 young people have benefitted from it's warm and encouraging presence, helping each other to navigate important issues like coming out, handling anxiety, depression, discrimination and negative peer pressure and understanding themselves better. About two new persons come each week to their meetings.

Youth at a HAVEN meeting say things like, "HAVEN helps us to know that we're not alone," and "We have instant friends in the room, even the first time we come." "HAVEN's the best thing I've ever done; it's the high point of my week," said one.

Research shows that LGBTQI youth are at risk of higher rates of anxiety and depression from experiencing the discrimination, violence and hate that are directed against them. Negative social attitudes take a terrible toll on one's sense of self-worth and LGBTQI teens often have higher rates of anxiety, depression and suicidal thoughts, suicidal plans and attempts.

"This group, HAVEN, deters suicide," announced one of its members proudly. "If kids come here, they can live with themselves," she said. Others added that hanging out with this supportive group of friends grows self-confidence and encourages embracing who you are, creating motivation to make it through another week.

A haven is a place of safety and refuge, a place to shelter in a storm of some kind. The designated room for the program has high windows and a single door and it's filled with comfortable furniture. Overheated by the building's antiquated radiators, it's pretty warm in there on a winter's evening. It's a true haven in a physical and an emotional sense.

"I love HAVEN and all it represents," one teen said. "It helped me learn how to be empathic and tolerant."

And wouldn't we want that for all our children?

-- Karen West

HAVEN TO HOST 14TH ANNUAL PRIZM PROM

HAVEN, the Lehigh Valley's only youth group for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, questioning, intersex, and allied youth, is hosting its 14th annual Prizm Prom, cosponsored by Pride of the Greater Lehigh Valley, from 7 to 11 PM on Saturday, May 13, 2017, at the Banana Factory, 25 West Third Street, Bethlehem. This year's theme is "The Force of Youth Awakens." Tickets for the evening are $15 per person at the door.

All gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, questioning, intersex, and allied youth and their friends, ages 14-20, are welcome at this gala affair. DJ Ali will provide music and Simply Smooth will cater the event.

Adults from the community and from Pride, along with HAVEN Facilitators, will chaperone the festivities.

For more information about HAVEN: uuclvpa.org/haven.php, havenyouthgroup@hotmail.com or on Facebook at Prizm Prom by Haven. To volunteer contact HAVEN at 610-868-2153.

SHARED PLATE FOR APRIL

This month's shared plate goes to The Repairers of the Breach, the nonpartisan and ecumenical organization which emerged from the Reverend William Barber's Moral Monday Movement that began in NC in 2013. Repairers of the Breach seeks to gather people of all faith traditions to effect change based on common moral principles.

CALM AND CIVIL UNREST

Second Sunday Concert, April 9, 2017

The April 9 Second Sunday concert is another "first" for the series – our featured artist is Ronée Boyce, an Afro-Canadian pianist who has been described as an "inspirational musician" with "great depth of musical interpretation." On the program are works by Beethoven, Chopin, Ravel, Albéniz, Janáček and Prokofiev. Ms. Boyce was a winner in the 2006 International Piano Competition in New York and subsequently appeared as a recitalist across Canada, The U.S., Western Europe and the Caribbean. She also performs extensively as a chamber music performer, and has been heard at many prestigious venues.

Join your fellow concert-goers and chat with our artists at our wonderful post-concert reception. $15 general admission; students are free. Sunday, April 9, 3:00 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door, or may be purchased on-line at www.concertseries.uuclypa.org.

SHAKUHACHI SPRING

Don't miss this special concert featuring Nora Nohraku Suggs on shakuhachi (Japanese flute) and John Arnold on guitar, at the UUCLV on Sunday, April 2 at 3pm in the Sanctuary. Bamboo and breath combine with the guitar's beauty - music from across the centuries and around the globe; an afternoon of peace and reflection to welcome spring. Admission is a free will offering, with a portion of funds collected donated to the UUCLV Second Sunday Concert Series.

JOIN US FOR A LINK PIZZA PARTY!

Consider yourself invited to join us for the monthly UU-Link Pizza & Mailing Party! Every month, volunteers meet in the FM kitchen at 12 noon on the 2nd Wednesday after the 3rd Sunday of the month for Link-folding, labeling, socializing and fresh, delicious pizza from Lehigh Pizza. If you'd like to join in the fun and help out, just RSVP to the office at uuclypa@uuclypa.org.
