December: What Does It Mean to Be a People of Hope?

It's not always easy to hear well this time of year, especially when it comes to hope. The dominant messages are about hope offering us calm: "The light will come." "A new day is on its way." "Justice and joy are growing in the womb and will soon be born." Hope, from this point of view, is a voice that reassures. It's a welcomed whisper that says, "Yes, the sky may be dark now. Yes, the road you're on at this moment may be hard. But trust me, just over that horizon, there's a new world waiting for us all."

This soothing message comes to us as a gift. During dark days, we all get tired. The fruits of our efforts are hard to see. We feel alone. The promise that things will change offers us relief. We are released from the burden of believing that "it is all up to me" or that it all must be solved now.

It's a beautiful and needed message. But it's also only half of what hope is trying to say. Hope doesn't just whisper "It will be different," it also shouts "It should be different" and "It can be different." Yes, it speaks soothing words about trusting and waiting, but it also takes the form of a holy impatience that declares, "Enough is enough. The time is now!" Hope is not just that which calms the unquiet heart; it also is the unquiet heart.

In other words, hope doesn't just promise us that change will come in the future; it also changes who we are in the present. When we believe that a new day is dawning, we don't just sit down and wait. We get up and go out to meet the light. When hope convinces us that there are unseen forces working for the good, we begin to look around more closely, and in doing so we notice that darkness and pain are not all that is there. When hope's holy impatience gets into our bones, we start acting as if we deserve that new day now. Which in turn changes others by convincing them that we all have waited long enough.

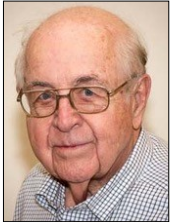

Bottom line: listening fully to hope, makes you dangerous, not just soothed! It doesn't relieve us of duty as much as it reminds us that wind is at our back and unseen reinforcements are at our side. Yes, hope reassures, but it also emboldens. It doesn't just offer us a promise; it gives us a push.

But all of this only happens if we listen fully. So maybe the most important question this month is: "Are we listening to everything hope has to say?"

See you in church.

– Don

FROM THE PRESIDENT

WELCOME

Hi all.

Again, I've turned to the book "The Growing Church" and the chapter on welcoming. Everyone interested in our church should read it. In my mind, the key to our success is how we meet and absorb new people into our congregation.

The fundamental question in the minds and hearts of visitors is not "Do I agree with these people". The question is "Are these my people". Visitors want to know if there is a place for them, if they will feel accepted, if they can forge deep friendships, will their children be safe and taught values of love and understanding and if we are really active in improving the community.

We must begin by opening our hearts to their needs and the pain of their isolation. We must reach out. To ignore the visitor is not bad manners. It's immoral.

Over the past few weeks, I've asked a few congregants how they feel about our church. Generally it's more positive than negative but in the past two weeks, I've heard from three newer people that some long time members would not respond to even a "good morning". They seem to be too much into themselves. This is very unfortunate. "Don't bother me, I have more important things to do than talk to you". You can imagine how that might come across to a visitor. One friend said he hasn't joined the church because he hasn't felt welcome even though he believes in the principles of our denomination.

My real concern is that if we don't work towards growth, we will slowly die. We can't let that happen. When I first came here in 1994, we had well over 200 members. Now we are a little less than 200. We have to work to stop this slow slide.

Please welcome all visitors from your heart. And, as I've noted before, join a committee and have some fun.

DECEMBER SHARED PLATE: LEHIGH CONFERENCE OF CHURCHES

For over 50 years the Lehigh Conference of Churches has brought local congregations together in responding to the most needy among us by providing funding and support for many programs such as soup kitchens, housing and empowerment advocacy.

SHARED PLATE FOR THE NEXT THREE MONTHS

The offering at service will be designated with the usual ¼ going to the charity of the month and the remaining ¾ is now to be sent to the UUA Emergency Relief Fund for use in helping disaster areas for the next 3 months. It is so important that we do everything we can to help these people. So please be generous during service to support this effort. This is your chance to really help.

HOLIDAY GIFTS - & FREE MONEY

Are you searching for holiday gift ideas? Would you also like to benefit our church community at no additional cost? We have an opportunity for you! Purchase a grocery gift card on sale every Sunday Morning in the Community Room. Giant and Weis cards are available for $10, $20, $50, and $100. ShopRite is coming soon. You can use them to purchase groceries or gas - and our church gets 5% of the face value. The shelter will also gratefully receive donated cards.

Plus, you can buy everyone's favorite treat - chocolate. We have many types of Equal Exchange chocolate bars for sale at the bargain price of $3.50 each or 6 for $20. Mini bars are $.25 each or 5 for $1.00.

Come visit the Grocery Card and chocolate table in the Community Room after the service every Sunday of the church year. It is a painless way to support our beloved community.

ADDITIONAL HYMNALS

Have you ever noticed the bookplates in the front of our hymnals? They identify the donor and sometimes memorialize a person who has died or honors someone living. Have you ever thought you might like to donate a hymnal? Here's your chance!

We need about 30 additional hymnals so everyone can fully participate in our services. A donation of $30.00 will purchase a hymnal. We will place a bookplate in the front recognizing your contribution and memorializing or honoring the person you designate.

We plan to order the hymnals in January. Therefore please return the form that was in the mailing you received, with your payment, to the church by December 31, 2017. If you no longer have the mailing, please stop at the Church Family table in the Community Room after a Sunday service or contact the church office to obtain another copy. -- Marie Tweed and Sue Weber

THE HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE NEEDS YOUR HELP!

We are searching for a neighborhood facilitator for the West group. Free, on the job training provided by the current committee. Comfort using the computer and email a plus, but not required. If you would like to join our team and serve the congregation in this capacity, email hospitality@uuclvpa.org or talk with Kerri Finkle.

The Christmas Eve candlelight service will be followed by an evening coffee hour for fellowship and sharing of our favorite holiday treats. Please bring a sampling of your favorite holiday cookies or snack to share. We could also use some folks to serve as greeters and ushers that evening. If you would like to welcome our members and visitors to spread some holiday cheer, please let us know at hospitality@uuclvpa.org

DECEMBER BREAKFAST FORUM

December 3

Hope - What Does it Mean to be a People of Hope

Rev. Don Garrett, Presenter

Please join us for a small group themed discussion on what does it mean to be a people of hope.

December 10

Poetry & Songs From the War to End All Wars

Todd Carpien, Presenter

Carpien is an actor who has performed in over 50 productions in the Lehigh Valley/Reading area, including Sing for America, Crowded Kitchen Players, Civic Theater, Munopco and many others. He will perform a one-man show of moving poetry and songs written by men who fought and died in World War I.

December 17

The Story of God w/Morgan Freeman

Cease Blocker, Presenter

"Beyond Death" - Freeman explores various ideas of what happens after death, including: near death experiences, Egyptian & Aztec mythologies, current beliefs and science's search for eternal life. He explores Mexico's Day of the Dead; Christian, Hebrew and Islam beliefs; Buddhism's reincarnation and Hindu's overcoming death.

December 24

Thomas Paine - "These are the Times That Try Men's Souls"

Cari Poole & Victor Madega, Presenters

A social activist and writer of "Common Sense," English-born Paine championed freedom and justice in both the American and French Revolutions. He befriended Franklin and Jefferson as they created our Declaration of Independence. In this BBC documentary, George Washington reads these impassioned words of Paine's to his soldiers crossing the Delaware on Christmas Eve 1776.

December 31

Yippy Skippy Puppet Theatre presents Fractured Fables

Andy Laties & Rebecca Madega of Book & Puppet Company, Presenters

Theme: New Beginnings. All ages are welcome. The puppet show is entirely improvised to live musical accompaniment. Audience members draw familiar stories and songs from the hat for the puppets to perform. The puppets never do get the story quite right, but the results are hilarious! And with a little help from the children, somehow it always works out in the end.

FROM THE LIFESPAN EDUCATION COORDINATOR

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (RE) FOR CHILDREN & YOUTH

Greetings! December is a mid-term break for schools and colleges and is also the case for the primary and lower elementary grade RE classes. Here's the rundown:

- December 3rd: v preK-1 and 2-4 grade classes will gather in room 208 to rehearse for the holiday pageant. This year the children will perform the beloved play a Charlie Brown Christmas.
- December 10th: we will stage the play for the congregation. George B. Miller is the director. The characters with lines are cast, but any child who shows up for the play can participate. There will be costumes for birds (i.e. Woodstock), angels and shepherds. The older children and youth will attend this service.
- December 17th: preK-1 and 2-4 grade classes gather in room 208 again for a children's worship service. The theme is Hope. We will ring the bell, light the chalice, sing, share joys and sorrows, collect donations for an offertory, read a story and do an activity. Don't forget the make sure your children have some money to put in the offertory basket. The 5-6 Neighboring Faiths class might attend a Protestant service. Coming of Age meets in room 204 and the youth group will meet in room 206.
- December 24: there will be an informal multi-generational Sunday morning service. The Christmas Eve service will be in the evening.
- December 31: Puppet show at 9:00 by Easton's Book and Puppet Company (www.bookandpuppet.com) The 10:30 worship service will be multi-generational.
- January 4: Regular RE classes resume

Mitten and Glove Tree: Parents – this is a great opportunity to teach generosity to your children. There will be a tree in the Center Street lobby where gloves and mittens can be hung to be donated to needy children in the Valley. Please involve your children by having them help purchase new gloves or mittens and then show them how to hang them to the tree.

In faith, Jansen Wendell,
Director of Lifespan Religious Education

ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION:

UU HISTORY CLASS COMING THIS WINTER

Joanna Herren is starting an adult RE class covering 500 years of Unitarian, Universalist and UU history, from the heretics of the reformation to the Council of Nicea to the Transcendentalism to the 21st century. The class will be able to take a broader view than the Long Strange Trip film series and go more into depth about the religious underpinnings of the various movements. The plan is to create a timeline that will be displayed on one of the hallways. The first three classes are scheduled for Sundays at noon on January 7, 21 and 28. Contact Joanna to express your interest at Herren2@aol.com.

INSPIRING OUR ETHICAL AND SPIRITUAL LIFE: AN EXAMINATION OF WORLD RELIGIONS

During our 2017-2018 year, we will examine the religions of the world that give us inspiration to build our ethical and spiritual lives. This class will explore the traditions of Egypt, Iran, India, China, Israel, Arabia and European Christianity. Loosely based on Neighboring Faiths, a UUA curriculum for 5th & 6th graders, Rev. Robin Capoor will present new material from all of these areas. There will be speakers from many faith traditions and field trips to their worship services within the Lehigh Valley. The class begins Sunday Sept 17th at 9am, in the RE Library. Tell Jansen Wendell (lec@uucvpa.org) or Rev. Robin Capoor (robincapoor@msn.com) if you're interested.

MINDFULNESS PRACTICE GROUP

(Tuesday evenings, 7:00 – 8:15pm, the Community Room)
With the help of conscious breathing, we are able to touch and be nourished by the peace and joy that are available within and around us, in the here and now. With continued practice, we shall touch and understand the roots of the pain that lie deep within us, such as fear, anger, despair, thus making transformation and healing possible. For more information, contact Rev. Don Garret at minister@uucvpa.org or Janice Lovegrove at lvjspirit@aol.com.

NEW PASTORAL CARE HOTLINE & EMAIL!

In order to better serve our members and friends, the Rev. Robin Capoor has volunteered to serve as a clearinghouse for pastoral care concerns. She will work with Rev. Garrett and others to ensure that every need is cared for. Just give her a call at 973-632-3211 or email her at robincapoor@msn.com.

BEING CARDED FOR THE HOLIDAYS

We have been gifted with a great many cards, for the Church Family "Card Table." We are grateful to those who have donated...Jackie Simone, Elizabeth Griner, Ginnie Schimmel and Margo Dixon, among many others. We'll be even more grateful when the cards get sent out to others! To this end, and to help us all get into the habit of writing, addressing and sending cards, we've decided to feature Holiday cards at the "Card Table" during the month of December.

Every Sunday we will be setting up either a round or a square table, in the Community Room, during and following the service, on which you can write and address cards, Holiday and other. As you sit worshipping and thinking of others whom you miss, jot down their names, come down to the Community Room during the coffee hour, pull up a chair to the table where the cards are located, and address Holiday and other kinds of cards to send to those you miss at the holiday season. If you don't know addresses, take some cards home to address and mail from there. If it is someone within the UUCLV family, we have a copy of the latest directory so you can address them right here. And feel free to bring in the Holiday cards which clutter your home, like the brand new cards which charities send you. And, if you don't have cards to give to the cause, think about buying stamps and donating them to the cause.

Church Family appreciates your reaching out to others, to extend the hand of friendship, love, and abundance over the holidays. Remember that if you want your Joys and Concerns to be shared with members of the Congregation via Email Church Family announcements, we must get them in writing. Stop by the "Card Table" to leave us those, or respond to the Church Family Enews when it arrives in your e mail box.

Thanks for being connected and staying connected. Stay connected, thankful, joyful, and concerned as the holidays come and go along with 2018.

UUCLV OFFICE NOTES

The deadline for the January issue of The UU-Link is, as always, the 3rd Sunday of the month: December 17. Please submit all articles and text info as Word files to thelink@uuclypa.org. Submissions may be edited for length, format, etc.

Please share your changes in address, contact info, etc with Membership at membership@uuclypa.org, and copy the office at uucly@uuclypa.org. This insures that our Church Windows database will be kept up to date.

GETTING THE WORD OUT!

Sharing information is very important to our church family. That's why it is so important to know where to send your announcements. Please follow these guidelines when submitting your information.

Information sent to the wrong place won't be re-routed.

THE LINK

Send all material to thelink@uuclypa.org

Deadline is the 3rd Sunday of the prior month.

THE ENEWS

Send articles to uuclynews@uuclypa.org only.

The eNews is published once a week on Wednesday or Thursday, with an occasional weekend reminder.

ORDER OF SERVICE & SUNDAY BULLETIN

Send all announcements and info to sunday@uuclypa.org.

Deadline is Thursday at noon.

HOLIDAY GIFT GIVING

Do you need a terrific holiday gift idea for that hard-to-buy for person? Why not give tickets to the Second Sunday Concert Series? There are three concerts remaining in the season – Satori on Feb. 11, Martin Soderburg on March 11, and the ever popular (UUCLV member) Dave Roper on April 8. Why not give the wonderful gift of music to a loved one or good friend? If you can't get to church to pick up one of our brochures, you can purchase tickets on the UUCLV website, www.uuclvpa.org. The order form states that tickets will be held at the door, but tickets purchased as gifts can be mailed to you in time for the upcoming holidays, if you wish. Questions? Call Sue or Jan Phillips, 610-821-1118.

HOLIDAY MITTEN & GLOVE TREE

The Social Action Committee announces a new giving initiative for the holidays. There will be a "Mitten & Glove Tree" in the sanctuary foyer starting with the November 26 service. Please bring in mittens and gloves for children and clip them to the tree. Parents, grandparents: this is a great way to involve your children in a holiday-giving activity. After the service Dec. 17, the mittens and gloves will be taken off the tree and will be donated to a distribution center. Judy Claps has suggested the Donegan School in Bethlehem since it has a high number of newly-arrived Puerto Rican children.

MEN'S GROUP

The next meeting of the UUCLV Men's Group will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 4 in the FM kitchen. The discussion topic will be: To whom or to what do you turn in times of difficulty, strife and sadness? What helps you get through the tough times? Is there more that the church can do to help you?

The UUCLV Men's Group is open to all affiliated with the church high school age or older regardless of gender. Please bring food and/or beverage to be shared. For more information, contact men@uuclvpa.org or Frank Claps at 610-346-7620

BENEDICTION FOR THE HEAVY HEART

By Mason Bolton

Good morning. I missed your "good" because a plane, because a truck, because a gun, because a cop, because a government, because a people suffering, because too many people suffering, because war, because famine, because some mornings it is so hard to rise, to wake, to be a self.

There is a pause here. There is a deliberate cessation. I want a cessation to the noise in my head, to the ache in the collective heart of this world. When I was young this seemed possible. When I was young how hope seemed to spring eternal.

I want to write about butterflies, about the cracked edges of tree bark pressing like a holy mother into palms. I want to write about the joy of children's cries, about birth, about the arch of your smile, how I could lose myself in the corners of your sweet and grinning mouth. This you is you reading this. I want for your joy, want to lose myself in you. I want your mornings "good," your evenings "good," all the late-nights and sunrises and afternoons and moments pressed against the ticking glass of your life "good."

Breathe. For yourself. For each other.

Let us breathe in when others cannot.

When we can do nothing else.

Let us stretch ourselves

open to embrace our friends, to extend our bodies open to anyone willing to meet us, or even to meet those we think may not.

Let us hold each other for this moment.

For this blink of human existence.

2017 SERVICE AUCTION RESULTS: A SUCCESSFUL EVENT!

We want to thank all of our members and friends who supported this year's service auction. It was a huge success with plenty of offerings, helping with set-up, preparing foods, welcoming at the door, serving drinks, and cleaning up.

Having the voice auction at the beginning of the evening, set the pace for an enjoyable fun night that followed by silent auction bidding wars, signing up for dinners, services and our new category "I Want What I Want".

The auction raised over $16,800 of which $510.00 was raised by the "I Want" category, $103.00 from donations at the bar and $425 door entry fees. Go to our church website to see all the auction results. Once again, this year's auction was a lot of fun and thank you for your support! -- The Service Auction Group
