

APPLICATION TO
THE UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CHURCH OF THE LEHIGH VALLEY (“UUCLV”)
FOR USE OF THE UUCLV MEMORIAL GARDEN

The undersigned (“Applicant”) hereby applies to UUCLV for permission to use the church’s Memorial Garden for the purpose of scattering the ashes (“cremains”) of _____ [deceased’s name], who was born _____ [date if known] and who died _____ [date if known]. The desired date for the scattering of ashes is _____.

Applicant shall complete this application form and submit same to: UUCLV, Attn: Minister, 424 Center Street, Bethlehem, PA 18018. The certificate of cremation or equivalent (or copy thereof) of the deceased must accompany this application.

UUCLV will enter the name of the deceased, dates of birth and death if known, date of the scattering of ashes, and the certificate of cremation or equivalent in a permanent Memorial Garden Book to be kept in the church office.

The name of any person whose ashes have been scattered within the Memorial Garden may be entered on a small memorial nameplate to be attached to a Memorial Garden Plaque in the proximity of the Memorial Garden. The memorial nameplate shall bear the full name of the deceased along with his/her dates of birth and death if available. If a memorial nameplate is requested, the fee for the nameplate, if any, shall be submitted with this application.

The use and maintenance of the Memorial Garden, Memorial Garden Plaque and memorial nameplates, and the maintenance of related records, shall be in accordance with the Memorial Garden Policy (“Policy”) adopted by the UUCLV Board of Trustees (“Board”). UUCLV will provide Applicant with a copy of the Policy, upon request.

In submitting this application, Applicant understands and agrees that:

- Cremains are to be scattered within the designated area of the Memorial Garden only and will not be recoverable or preserved intact.
- No interment or burial of cremains or containers is permitted within the Memorial Garden.
